

Ballston Exchange

Welcome to Ballston Exchange

Set in the heart of Arlington's burgeoning Rosslyn-Ballston Metro corridor, Ballston Exchange is made up of two adjacent buildings with tremendous presence totaling over 768,176 square feet of retail and office space.

With thoughtful repositioning and renovations that brought new life into the property and renewed vitality to the greater community, Ballston Exchange is a vibrant piece of the evolution of the neighborhood in which it lies.

A destination is born

Common space at Ballston Exchange is specifically designed to foster a sense of community among those who revel in the opportunity to socialize, collaborate and network with their neighbors.

PROPERTY FEATURES INCLUDE

An iconic building addition to 4201 Wilson provides a multistory retail opportunity with prime frontage along Wilson Boulevard

Direct connectivity via two pedestrian bridges links the second floor of Ballston Exchange to both the Metro station and Ballston Quarter, making our multilevel atrium a primary thoroughfare for daily Metro riders and mall-goers

Repositioned street-level retail spaces with newly improved facades wrap the ground floor, making Ballston Exchange one of the largest blocks of contiguous space in the metropolitan Washington, D.C. market dining patios, and public seating, the Ballston Exchange paseo buzzes with energy, providing tenants and visitors with a casual outdoor environment to gather, dine, and shop
